SHABBAT CANDLES

הדלקת הנרות

As these Shabbat candles give light and warmth to all who behold them, so may we, by the lives that we live, give light and warmth to all who behold us. As their brightness reminds us of the generations of Israel who have kindled light, so may we, in our own day, be among those who kindle light.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ
בְּמִצְוֹתָיו, וְצִוָּנוּ לְהַדְלִיק נֵר שֶׁל שַׁבָּת.

v'tzee-va-nu l'had-leek neyr shel Sha-bat.*

We praise You, Eternal God, Sovereign of the universe: You hallow us with Your mitzvot, and command us to kindle the lights of Shabbat.

Teach them faithfully to your children; speak of them in your home and on your way, when you lie down and when you rise up. Bind them as a sign upon your hand; let them be a symbol before your eyes; inscribe them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates. Be mindful of all My mitzvot and do them, so shall you consecrate yourselves to your God. I am Adonai your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I, Adonai, am your God.

ALENU (DAN NICHOLS AND CANTOR ELLEN DRESKIN)

עלינו

It's up to us to call ourselves to task, to sing what's good and true,
To bring about redemption, it's what we were freed to do.
For what's the point of being here if we're not moved to change our ways?
Aleinu l'shabeiakh ... it's time to live our praise.

We are carrying the stories of the ones who came before.
What stories will be told of us when we are here no more?
We commit ourselves to action; it brings meaning to our days.
Aleinu l'shabeiakh ... it's time to live our praise.

It's up to us to own the vision, we are an answer to a call.
It's up to us to live the words we speak for the benefit of all.
It's up to us to bow down deeply — there's a broken world to raise.
Aleinu l'shabeiakh ... it's time to live our praise.

O-seh sha-lom bim-ro-mav, hu ya-a-seh sha-lom a-ley-nu v'al kol Yisrael v'al kol yosh-vei te-vel, v'eem-ru: A-men.

Let the glory of God be extolled, and God's great name be hallowed in the world whose creation God willed. May God rule in our own day, in our own lives, and in the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen. Let God's great name be blessed forever and ever. Beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter is the Holy One, the Blessed One, whom yet we glorify, honor, and exalt. And let us say: Amen. For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen. May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, cause peace to reign among us, all Israel, and all the world, and let us say: Amen.

The Results are In!

Our votes for U.S. representatives to the World Zionist Congress have been counted. Here are the results: of 120,000 votes cast, 31,500 went to "Vote Reform." This means our community received 26% of the votes which gives us a HUGE voice when it comes time to allocate dollars and energies toward advancing pluralism, equality and freedom in Israel. Thank you for your caring support!

Want to Learn about Judaism Online?

The 2020 Census -- Take It Online!

It's so easy, AND SO IMPORTANT, for every American household to participate in the 2020 Census. And for the first time, you can complete it online. As an extra bonus, that'll be one less person coming to your door during The Virus Crisis. Visit my2020census.gov today!

We Need Your Yarmulkes!!!

Believe it or not, those old kippot you have lying around in closets and drawers can be refashioned into effective face masks. And the nuns at Maryknoll Sisters in Ossining are doing exactly that! There are sick, elderly women there for whom the healthy sisters want to make these. Please bring your unused kippot/yarmulkes (cloth only please, not satin or suede) to the temple (in a plastic bag, leave them at the door) and we'll get them to these wonderful ladies.

The Judaica Shop at Woodlands

We hope you are staying healthy, optimistic and vigilant working to contain the virus. We will adhere to the policies of Woodlands Community Temple and not have The Judaica Shop physically open. BUT we've brought the shop to you, virtually!! At this time the online catalogue is dedicated to celebrating Passover and while many large family Seder gatherings will not be how we celebrate this year, maintaining some normalcy and retelling the Passover story will be enlightening and uplifting this year. If you are interested in purchasing an item, please email judaicashop@wct.org and we will coordinate next steps. Please visit us online at wct.org/judaicashop.

Opportunities for You Outside of WCT

In the weekly email, we will bring you information about things happening online that could be of interest to you. Music, learning, cooking and more. Watch for them!

In these challenging times, support WCT vendors!

They've fed us and more in the good times. Now they're struggling to stay in business during the pandemic. If you are able, place an order with them. Thanks.
